To the Shareholders,

Dear Sir or Madam,

INTERIM SCRIP DIVIDEND WITH CASH OPTION FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED 30 JUNE 2011

Introduction

On 25 August 2011, the board of directors ("Board") of K. Wah International Holdings Limited ("Company") declared that an interim dividend for the six months ended 30 June 2011 ("Interim Dividend") of HK$0.02 per issued share of the Company ("Share") be paid on 4 November 2011 to the shareholders of the Company ("Shareholders") whose names appear on the registers of members at the close of the business on 7 October 2011. It was resolved by the Board that the Interim Dividend shall be satisfied by way of scrip dividend (with cash option). Due to a typhoon no. 8 signal was hoisted on 29 September 2011 and according to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities ("Listing Rules") on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Stock Exchange"), the latest date on which transfers were accepted for registration in order to qualify for the Interim Dividend was deferred to 3 October 2011. The registers of members of the Company was closed from 4 October 2011 to 7 October 2011 (both dates inclusive) during which period no transfer of Shares will be registered in order to determine the entitlement of the Shareholders of the Interim Dividend.

Particulars of the Interim Dividend

Shareholders have the following choices in respect of the satisfaction of the Interim Dividend:

- (i) an allotment and issue of new Shares ("New Shares") credited as fully paid and having an aggregate Discounted Market Value (as defined below) equal to the total amount of Interim Dividend which Shareholders could elect to otherwise receive in cash in the amount of HK$0.02 per Share, subject to any fractional entitlement being disregarded as mentioned below; or
- (ii) payment of Interim Dividend of HK$0.02 per Share held on 7 October 2011 in cash; or
- (iii) partly by allotment and issue of New Shares and partly by payment of cash.

For the purpose of calculating the number of New Shares to be allotted and issued, the discounted market value ("Discounted Market Value") of a New Share means the average of the closing prices of one Share on the Stock Exchange for the trading days from 10 October 2011 to 14 October 2011 (both dates inclusive), less 5% discount, rounding down such figure to four decimal places. It will not be possible to determine until the close of business on 14 October 2011 the exact number of New Shares to which a Shareholder, electing to receive New Shares, will be entitled. The Company will make an announcement, including information about the Discounted Market Value for the purpose of calculating the number of New Shares to be allotted by way of scrip dividend. The announcement will be made available on the websites of the Company and the Stock Exchange on 14 October 2011. The last day on which Shareholders will be entitled to elect how they wish to receive their entitlement to the Interim Dividend is 21 October 2011.

Accordingly, the number of New Shares which Shareholders will receive, in respect of the existing Shares registered in their names as at 7 October 2011 and for which elections to receive the Interim Dividend in cash are not lodged with the Company's branch share registrars in Hong Kong on or before 21 October 2011, will be calculated as follows:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Number of New Shares} \\ \text{to be received} \end{array} = \begin{array}{l} \text{Number of existing Shares} \\ \text{held on 7 October 2011 for} \\ \text{which cash election is not made} \end{array} \times \frac{\text{HK$0.02}}{\text{Discounted Market Value}}$$

The New Shares to be issued pursuant to the scrip dividend arrangements will rank pari passu in all respects with the existing issued Shares, except for the Interim Dividend and will rank in full for all future dividends and distributions which may be declared, made or paid. No Shareholder will be entitled to be issued any fraction of a Share under the scrip dividend arrangements and the number of New Shares to be issued to each Shareholder (other than those who elect to receive their full entitlement to the Interim Dividend in cash) shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number. Fractional entitlements to Shares will be disregarded and the benefit thereof will accrue to the Company.

Advantage of the Scrip Dividend

The election by Shareholders to receive the Interim Dividend in whole or in part in the form of New Shares will enable Shareholders to increase their holdings of Shares without incurring brokerage fees, dealing costs or stamp duty. The Company will also benefit because, to the extent that Shareholders elect to receive New Shares, in whole or in part, such cash as would otherwise have been paid to Shareholders will be retained for use as working capital by the Company.

Effect of the Scrip Dividend

If elections to receive the Interim Dividend in cash were received in respect of all the existing Shares registered as at 7 October 2011, the total cash dividend payable by the Company would be approximately HK$51,064,000 based on 2,553,209,210 Shares in issue as at 3 October 2011.

Shareholders should note that the issue of the New Shares may give rise to notification requirements under the Securities and Futures Ordinance for those Shareholders who may have notifiable interests in the Company. Shareholders who are in any doubt as to how these provisions may affect them are recommended to seek their own professional advice. Shareholders who are in any doubt as to their taxation position are also recommended to seek their own professional advice.

The Company, being an exempted company incorporated in Bermuda, has been designated as non-resident for Bermuda exchange control purposes and has been granted an assurance by the Minister of Finance in Bermuda under the Exempted Undertakings Tax Protection Act 1966. Accordingly, in the event of there being enacted in Bermuda any legislation imposing tax computed on profits or income, or computed on any capital asset, gain or appreciation, or any tax in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax, then the imposition of any such tax shall not be applicable to the Company or any of its operations or Shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company provided that such assurance shall not be construed as to

- (i) prevent the application of any such tax or duty to such persons as are ordinarily resident in Bermuda; or
- (ii) prevent the application of any tax payable in accordance with the provisions of the Land Tax Act, 1967 or otherwise payable in relation to the land leased to the Company.

Form of Election

Enclosed is a Form of Election. No action is required if you wish the Interim Dividend which you are entitled to receive to be wholly satisfied by an allotment of New Shares on the abovementioned basis. Otherwise, if you wish to receive such dividend wholly in cash in lieu of New Shares, or partly in cash with the balance satisfied by an allotment of New Shares, you must complete the enclosed Form of Election in accordance with the instructions printed thereon and lodge it with the Company's branch share registrars in Hong Kong, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, at 17M Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong not later than 4:30 p.m. on 21 October 2011. If you have signed the Form of Election but do not specify the number of Shares in respect of which you wish to receive the Interim Dividend in cash or, if you elect to receive the Interim Dividend in cash in respect of a greater number of Shares than your registered holding, then in either case you will be deemed to have exercised your election to receive the Interim Dividend in cash in lieu of New Shares in respect of all the Shares registered in your name(s) at the close of business on 7 October 2011. No acknowledgement of receipt of Form of Election will be issued. The Form of Election also enables you to elect to receive all future dividends wholly in cash in lieu of New Shares until notice in writing to cancel such election is received by the branch share registrars of the Company. Permanent elections cannot be made in respect of part of your registered holding of Shares.

The Form of Election has not been sent to Shareholders who have previously made a permanent election to receive all future dividends wholly in cash. These Shareholders will receive cash in lieu of New Shares for all the Shares registered in their names at the close of business on 7 October 2011, without having to complete any further Form of Election. Any Shareholder wishing to change these existing permanent elections should contact the Company's branch share registrars in Hong Kong, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at the abovementioned address, before 4:30 p.m. on 21 October 2011.

Unless Shareholders have previously made a permanent election to receive future dividends wholly in cash, failure to complete and return the Form of Election in accordance with the instructions printed thereon will result in the Shareholders' Interim Dividend being paid wholly in the form of New Shares.

Shareholders Resident Outside Hong Kong

All Shareholders resident outside Hong Kong should consult their bankers or other professional advisers as to whether any governmental or other consents are required or other formalities need to be observed to enable them to receive Shares in satisfaction of the Interim Dividend. No person receiving in any territory outside Hong Kong a copy of this circular and/or a Form of Election may treat the same as an offer to elect to receive the New Shares unless in the relevant territory such offer could lawfully be made to him without the Company having to comply with any registration or other legal, regulatory or governmental requirements or similar formalities.

This circular and Form of Election will not be registered in Hong Kong or any other jurisdiction. The Shares have not been registered under the applicable securities legislation of any jurisdictions other than Hong Kong. The Company has made enquiries with legal advisers where its overseas Shareholders are based regarding legal restrictions and regulatory requirements on the election of Shareholders resident outside Hong Kong to receive the Interim Dividend in the form of New Shares arrangements as required by rule 13.36(2) of the Listing Rules on the Stock Exchange. Since registration or filing or other procedures will need to be carried out to comply with the relevant securities legislations of the United Kingdom and the United States of America ("Excluded Jurisdictions") and/or the costs of complying with the requirements in each Excluded Jurisdiction will materially exceed any potential benefit to the Company of doing so, the Directors consider that it would be necessary and expedient to exclude Shareholders with registered addresses in the Excluded Jurisdictions ("Excluded Shareholders") from the arrangements to allow Shareholders to receive the Interim Dividend in the form of New Shares as it would be impractical to comply with such procedures in these countries given the small Shareholder base. Accordingly, the Form of Election will not be sent to the Excluded Shareholders and they will only receive this circular for information. Excluded Shareholders will receive their Interim Dividend wholly in cash.

Apart from the Excluded Shareholders, according to the Company's registers of members, there are other Shareholders whose registered addresses are outside Hong Kong but not within the Excluded jurisdictions ("Non Excluded Overseas Shareholders"). Based on the advice of legal advisers where such Non Excluded Overseas Shareholders are based, the Non Excluded Overseas Shareholders are allowed to participate in the arrangements to receive the Interim Dividend in the form of New Shares. It is the responsibility of any Shareholders outside Hong Kong who wishes to receive New Shares under the scrip dividend arrangements to comply with the laws of the relevant jurisdictions including obtaining all necessary governmental or other regulatory consents and compliance with any other similar formalities. It is also the responsibility of any Shareholders outside Hong Kong who receive New Shares in lieu of the cash dividend comply with any restrictions on the resale of the Shares which may apply outside Hong Kong.

Listing and Dealings

Shares issued by the Company have been admitted as eligible securities for deposit and settlement in the Central Clearing and Settlement System ("CCASS") established and operated by Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited. Dealings in the Shares may be settled through CCASS. Investors should seek the advice of their stockbrokers or other professional advisers for details of these settlement arrangements and how such arrangements will affect their rights and interests.

The Shares are listed and dealt in on the Stock Exchange. On no other stock exchanges are any part of the Shares listed or dealt in or on which listing or permission to deal is being or is proposed to be sought. The issue of the New Shares is conditional upon the granting by the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange of the listing of and permission to deal in the New Shares. An application has been made to the Stock Exchange for the listing of and permission to deal in the New Shares to be issued pursuant to the scrip dividend arrangements. It is expected that share certificates in respect of such New Shares and dividend warrants will be posted at the risk of those entitled thereto on or before 4 November 2011 and dealings in such New Shares is expected to commence on 8 November 2011. In the unlikely event that the New Shares are not admitted to listing by the Stock Exchange before 4 November 2011, the Forms of Election will be disregarded and the full cash dividend will be paid to the entitled Shareholders according to their registered shareholdings.

Recommendation and Advice

It is the Shareholders' responsibility to decide in this regard whether or not to exercise their rights to receive the Interim Dividend in cash in lieu of New Shares. Whether or not it is to the Shareholders' advantage to receive cash or New Shares, in whole or in part, depends upon their own individual circumstances. The effect on the tax position of any Shareholder will depend on that Shareholder's particular circumstances. If you are in any doubt as to what to do, you should consult your professional advisers. Shareholders who are trustees are recommended to take professional advice as to whether the choice to receive cash or New Shares is within their powers and as to its effect having regard to the terms of the relevant trust instrument.

Yours faithfully,
Dr. Che-woo Lui
